This Acorn issue is different. The bulk of the “news” is the list of people (except those who asked to remain anonymous) who have shared monetary gifts with us over the past year. I continue to be awed by the generosity and humbled by the trust of our benefactors. Their

JUBILARIANS GO FOR THE GOLD

On August 13, Presentation Sisters Francine Janousek and Lorraine Schmaltz celebrated the golden jubilee of their religious profession. S. Francine was baptized at St. Luke’s Church in Veseleyville, ND and S. Lorraine at Sacred Heart Church in Orrin, ND. At the time of their entrance into religious life, S. Francine was a parishioner of St.

Luke’s and S. Lorraine a parishioner of St. Rose of Lima, Hillsboro, ND.

Both sisters taught in Fargo parochial schools. S. Francine served in the ministries of education, health care, and pastoral work in North Dakota, Minnesota, Missouri, and Kentucky. She currently serves in congregational ministry as director of associates, prayer center staff, and administrative council member. S. Lorraine served parishes in Beach, New Rockford, and Langdon and in the states of Washington and Oregon. She currently is a pastoral associate for Christian Initiation and Parish Life at St. Thomas Aquinas Parish in Ames, IA.

Fr. John Evans was Presider and Homilist for the morning celebration of the Eucharistic Liturgy at Riverview Place Chapel. It was in this same chapel (then Sacred Heart Convent Chapel) where the sisters professed their vows on August 17, 1961. Family and friends of the two jubilarians as well as associates and sisters enjoyed dinner and an afternoon of visiting at Sacred Heart Convent.

kindness is evidence that philanthropy is not restricted to folks with big pots of money. As you probably know, philanthropy means love of humanity. So far as we know the word was coined to describe an attribute of Prometheus, the fellow of Greek mythology who gave humankind the gifts of fire and hope.

It is continued philanthropy that allows us to both receive and to pass on to others the fire of spiritual renewal and the hope for a better tomorrow. As the number of sisters earning salaries decreases, we rely even more on charity to do what needs to be done—advocating for peace in our world and justice in our land, serving the needs of parishes, meeting housing needs in the local community, tutoring immigrants and others, providing opportunities for spiritual nourishment and growth, offering companionship to the elderly and infirm, praying unceasingly.

We recognize there is a distinction but not necessarily a separation between the demands of compassion and the counsels of prudence. In sharing your gifts with others, we strive to do the best we can to be both compassionate and prudent in bringing fire and hope to those in need of human warmth and divine energy.

Not listed in the Acorn but equally dear to our hearts and sustaining of our lives are those from whose generosity we benefit in other ways—the tillers of earth who share with us the produce of their gardens, the organizers and doers who apply their talents in planning events, the participants in liturgy who help us praise God in word and in music, the members of boards who work to keep ministries afloat. For all of you we pray daily and to all of you we are eternally grateful.
